

JURY DUTY AND VOTING ARE FRAUDS.
SHEEPLE PARTICIPATION PERPETUATES THE TYRANNY OF LAW.

Jury duty died as a civil duty; that is among many a lie of US propaganda; so goes the voting lie in America. Elections and jury systems are corrupt & rigged and 2020 US elections prove that. The whole vote process is known as republicanism, which is not a political party. The Ancient Greeks created the system to give people the deception that tossing a piece of paper or other into a ballot box every few years controlled government. It serves a convenient purpose to keep them uninvolved in ruling politics, which is really an organized criminal lootership that wishes only to steal their resources. There is no good government; all of them are criminal. Only a moron in denial can see that it does not. Rome followed Greece to disaster, too. Both empires fell and so is USA falling. Moreover using this system allows the lying chiseling politico an escape clause and excuses it from onus: politico blames voters when shit hits the proverbial fan. It's all your fault. The voter's made me do it cop out, which gives the other political scapegoats a day off, as it were. Obama, during his reign of terror, advocated mandatory voting law for all eligible citizens with fines and other penalties for those who disobeyed the law. If voting and jury duty are so noble, why are these enforced through violence of bad law, thugs, cages and guns? Voter declines are because many wake up the whole scam to abandon it. Low voter turnout shows US capitalistic democracy as a fraud, which makes US look bad preaching hubris of what it says but not do. The late George Carlin said, 'on election day I stay home playing with self for a better sense of accomplishment; with more to show for it in the end.' Mark Twain, in 1800's said, 'if voting changed anything they would not allow us to do it, [it would be against the law].' 'One has to be sleeping to believe the American dream' said the late George Carlin. The perfect slave is one who says, 'I am not a slave.' Let that sink in, useful idiot slaves. Obama's plan failed, as all collectivism is wont to do. His entire administration was a bad comedy of failure, in toto, which nearly destroyed the constitution and paved the way for worse police-state, collectivist, abuses in store for USA. Some say worse than Jimmy Carter; but I disagree, Biden is lowest of the lows, right under ant shit. But disasters add up. Australia made it unlawful to not vote and predictably the measure failed. Voters press ganged into the duty made a farce of it by simply writing 'none' or 'other colorful remarks' on the ballot and sent it back. Police state politicians, instead of getting the message, added 'None' to the ballots. Liars figure and figures lie. Voter number turn out was all it wanted; so state could proclaim: 'see, our system is best.' Countries play the bigger dick game of which is biggest and best. They are all dicks in that, nothing more. Liars figure & figures lie. Truth is we do not have a choice of candidates, voting is jerking off into a ballot box. The informed voter only knows what they want you to know. All other dissent is crushed and censored as lies the lame mass media publishes and nothing more. Ever talk to an informed voter? I can last half a minute before running away from the moron. America is a land of lies; tyrants rule by lie and deception. Media shames non-voters as apathetic, lazy, ignorant unwashed masses. Skirting the truth that those not supporting the fraud are aware of the whole scam. Media is mouthpiece of the collectivist police state, or lower. Feminists are proud of their martyrdom securing the vote. As with most accomplishments, her 'sacrifices' were in vain. Nothing from nothing is nothing. However, it did keep the whining harpy's busily out of mischief from hosing up other things; for a while, which is what those in power intended all along. People fighting over left or right wings forget both connect to the same corrupt bird. The whole idea is to keep people fighting to never know what really goes on. The more people are divided the easier it is to control the masses. Let that sink in....

Jury duty press gang is another worse scam. Our fore mothers and fathers never intended the current Jury system when writing in into our constitution. Now the whole thing is a scam of biblical proportions. Lawyers stack juries to their favor. They use mental abuses to sway jury to their agenda. There is no justice in US but to those who are powerful and rich enough to pay for it. The whole system is about rule enforcing bad law of the lie, made by bad people. It never was about justice. Justice and law are at opposite ends of continuum. One cannot know anything except the lies told by each side of the legal argument: 'guilty or not guilty.' None hear anything but guilty. A lie told 3 times by the same or different people is accepted as truth by hearers. Everyone is guilty until proven otherwise. Among the mind games most simpletons fall for is this one: the mind does not work on a reverse idea. The defense and prosecution both tell jurors the client is guilty. 'Not guilty' is heard by people as only 'guilty.' If I say don't think of pink elephants. You only hear pink without the don't. Keep that in mind when marketing propaganda is brainwashing you by preceding what it wants you to do with do not guilty. Or asks it in a question: is he really guilty? All you hear is guilty. Moreover, jurors are denied their rights as a juror. One must find and learn truth, which terrifies this whole system. Judges have tried gaslighting, bullying and punishing those who know their rights, which only made them more visible to the rest of we sheeple and revealed the scam more. So much for carrot and stick. FIJA or fully informed juror association is excellent place to find out more. Informed jurors are destroying the Drug War in criminal courts. People knowledgeable of their rights are purposely getting picked for juries and then using 'juror nullification' to overturn and remove 'bad laws' producing political crime convictions aka, US drug war victims. Timothy Leary is a notable case of these bad laws; he was pinched in a police state drug set up; so was Tommy Chong. In use political crimes are deemed drug crimes; in communist china, Russia, Korea they are called political crimes. Juror nullification by moles freed many a black person facing a stacked jury of all white, racially prejudiced people. Lawyers use jury-stacking, court questionnaires to find out people's bias to use in a trial stacking juries to prove their case railroading innocent people, not for justice. In voir dire you are ordered to respond to them. I do so by placing name only and FIJA in large letters across it to communicate my intent. They seek meek, milquetoast, easily swayed, consensus led, useful idiot string puppets in which to stack juries. If you are assertive, self-thinking, independent, stubborn, opinionated, they leave you on the bench. If a mole, cooperate and be meek, wishy-washy, agreeable to be picked then turn the case on its ear nullifying the bad law. Once the defendant is acquitted, s/he cannot be retried per double jeopardy clause of US Constitution. I learned the hard way about these things. Once in ignorance I dutifully filled out court questionnaires like a good, conditioned, idealistic US commie fully cooperating with the court. Court assures one that personal info is confidential during the trial. Take note of the underscore. Let that sink in. Your info maybe safe during the trial but not after when court persons leak it to outside causing one grave damage for which it is free of any culpability. Who do you call? Them, press, they are all part and parcel of this rigged matrix. They lie about all else and that is no exception. They want to know how you think, where you live for their records on each one of us trusting fools then sell you out for the next few decades. I got a psychological RAPING by a criminal court during voir dire interrogation, among 9 others of we free thinkers, about our questionnaire answers. After that I followed, 'they pretend to be honest; I pretend to be honest' policy. The experience ruined me about this whole sham; I lost my police state-religion as it were. Bad as it was, I could never have learned the lesson except by 45 years of being press ganged into forced involvement in the US, legal-political, corrupt, oligarchy. US rules by lie; other despotic countries tell the truth when committing human rights crimes against an individual. US hubris constantly bombards us with the lie that we are free. So are most nations in the world to some extent. Freedom stands alone and needs no further introduction or explanation. US is not free; it is a regressive, police-state country that steals ideas and resources then takes credit for making the ‘accomplishment.’ US is a world terrorist bully that scapegoats everyone else for its crimes against world humanity. I watched a live BLM interview by press. The spokesperson for BLM made damned good sense. US accused the group of violence. BLM replied hypocrite! America is about violent terrorism against its citizens and the world then went on to provide copious current facts. Press dismissed them in a hurry. BLM got factual not even with US bullying during the interview. I did not much know what to think of it during rioting and such. Now it makes sense. Now press smears it politically safely lurking from the shadows.

If the court knows that you are aware of your real juror rights, it avoids the person like Covid hoax. You best know your shit because a judge will call you aside and grill the living hell out of you. Stand on your convictions and don’t waver. You’ve lost if you do. Never lie, state the truth and do your duty to self not to a bastard, debased system. That is a freedom one must fight for anywhere even in USA. One knowledgeable person can ruin a whole voir dire for good by speaking up in court, when asked. It lets the rest understand they are being scammed. Many curiosity seekers then seek out to find the scam and learn their rights. Nobody can avoid hidden traps. Reveal truth locations; the rest will come except to the moron, slow leak, useful idiots. Then court has to throw out baby and bathwater to start again with fresh meat. The useful idiots are lost don’t waste your piss on them. BTW, it is not jury tampering as the court will intimidate. That is where being stubborn comes in. OK, arrest me; the jury is not selected; this is voir dire only and evidence will only reveal the rest of what you don’t want them to know. The political-courts are being punished by their crimes. Do this only during voir dire; once on a jury it’s considered by the bench as tampering. Although, nothing prevents you from voicing your beliefs during jury deliberations when hanging it. Ie: ‘it’s my belief the law is bad and misused I invoke nullification per my juror right.’ Moreover, like ‘the voters made me do it,’ cop-out-political-slime excuses; when a jury wrongfully convicts an innocent person courts use this same cop out; the jury made us do it. After the fact useful idiot juries saying ‘I’m sorry we did that to you’ is a cop out by them, too. You did it; so you own it in the end, assholes. You destroy a person’s life, you pay in the end. Harming another is always self harm, always.

Lawyers don’t obey laws; those bottom feeders seek ways around laws for political expediency, to win a case, make a name for selves and get rich. Innocence & justice, be damned. All are expendable politically. Only law matters. Their laws do not apply to them; they use this system to selfish advantage then turn it against self for gain. A high profile politician, being tried for income tax evasion, which is a communist created instrument, recently came out of NY state supreme court to say before news cameras, ‘I did nothing wrong, I simply did not comply with the law.....’ To the crooks running USA land of hated American’s; their laws do not apply to them, only to we rabble slaves. The US constitution is a mess, it is used by PTB only as expedient means serving their corrupt ends. US has the worst corrupt politicians in the world that money can buy. US was never great or ever will be. The whole premise is another political lie created and based on religious lies that went further into hell in a handbag. Tyranny rules by lie and might. Nazis did that; Stalin & Mao did that, etc. Participating with the system makes everyone who does so part of the fraud and lie. Civil disobedience is not to help the problem. Use it for your agenda and turn the system against itself. You may be only one drop to the ocean of perversion but over time one drop removed empties the whole sea. What we see now is US empire failure; the imperialist dingoes have come out to feed.

Jury duty press gang is enforced by bad law, thugs with clubs, cages and guns. So if it is so noble a civic duty why is it enforced by police state violence? Because it is a moneymaker for taxpayer robbing governments. The state pays on the nose for each conscript forced to play the game, which like voter numbers gives it only topical authenticity and integrity. The state pays 40-50 dollars to that legal system for each juror just to show up, whether ever picked for a trial. Therefore the courts over book as many people as possible to show up for jury duty. While it pays or does not a minimum to each one as conscript donating their life to corruption, which does not cover car fare, for wasting their time enriching police state bureaucrats. The no show rate for most counties is anywhere from 80-90 percent. They cannot arrest the whole county or city although they do try making examples of a few to scare the rest of us. The whole thing is crooked as uncle tom's broke-dick, and is working against the system and any poor sots caught by it. A kid caught with the wrong vegetable matter is ruined for life by US prison Inc. US has more people incarcerated per capita than any other country in the world. More than in the Chinese and Russian gulag systems, alone. US is an unjust, blood stained white knight.

Recently in LA, riot broke out in the juror hall full of 500 voir dire members press ganged into serving jury duty that day. Authorities sent them all home then retreated asking, what do we do now that the rabble are wise to us? Get the message assholes. Lawyers, cops, doctors, and many more are automatically exempt from the sham because they know too much, and that it is a political-legal oligarchy, money-making, scam of government not a jury of peers seeking justice, as our forebears intended. I overheard a group of trial lawyers joking about a jury. One said, 'did you get a load of that jury?' The other said, 'Yeah, they were too stupid to get out of it.....' Leave it up to US corruption to pollute forbear efforts protecting citizen rights against police state tyranny that they knew so well. Constitution gives us nothing; it serves as a contract for us to keep the chiseling lootership and its bad laws destroying this country in line. But only when 'we the people' enforce it. Yes, you can fire politicians the constitution allows it. US is a kakistocracy. The worst ruled by the worst and growing worse. American sheeple got the kind of govt they deserve. And it is crumbling before their eyes. America is dead and it will not RIP.
